

Curse @cursedsalad

21 Oct 18 · 50 tweets · cursedsalad/status/1054057929651871744

Tr

1. Two millennia ago, Jews banded together to crush a Galilean that threatened their tribal interests. This past July, a new threat to Jewish interests emerged....

The Crucifixion of Brett Kavanaugh.

2. On July 9, President Trump nominated Judge Brett Kavanaugh to replace Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy. Justice Kennedy was regarded as the Supreme Court's "swing vote," and Jews feared Kavanaugh's appointment would push the court right-of-center.

3. Only one hour after Trump announced Kavanaugh's nomination, the National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) issued a press release stating they were "incensed," and propagandized Kavanaugh as a far-right proponent.

NCJW125

MENU

Press Releases

Brett Kavanaugh Turns the Supreme Court into a Puppet Court for the Far Right

July 10, 2018

National Council of Jewish Women
1707 L Street NW, Suite 950
Washington, DC 20036-4206

Contact: Amanda Lang
Director of Marketing and Communications
212.870.2738 office
917.886.0336 cell

Brett Kavanaugh Turns the Supreme Court into a Puppet Court for the Far Right

July 9, 2018, Washington, DC – Citing the record of Brett Kavanaugh and President Trump's promise that his latest nominee to the Supreme Court would overturn Roe v. Wade, the National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) today is incensed by the nomination of Kavanaugh to a lifetime seat on the nation's highest court. NCJW CEO Nancy K. Kaufman released the following statement:

"The president's nomination of DC Circuit Court Judge Brett Kavanaugh will threaten women's reproductive rights generally and Roe v Wade in particular. When a minor immigrant in detention sought to exercise her right to obtain a legal abortion, Kavanaugh tried to block her access to abortion care, claiming that the court was creating 'a new right' for immigrants in custody 'to obtain immediate abortion on demand.'

"Kavanaugh also dissented from rulings upholding the Affordable Care Act and claims that the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is unconstitutional. He routinely decides for the powerful against the powerless when safety, equality, consumer rights, the environment and workers protections are at stake. Although Kavanaugh worked on the impeachment of President Clinton, he now maintains that 'criminal investigations and prosecutions of the president' should be deferred while a president is in office.

4. NCJW also expressed outrage that previous candidate Merrick Garland wasn't appointed. Why? Because he's a Jew. His appointment would have made the Supreme Court 44% Jewish.

In-group favoritism among Jews:

ok ✓

In-group favoritism among whites:

Nazism ✗

"The refusal of Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell even to grant a hearing to Merrick Garland, President Obama's 2017 nominee has resulted in a sort of judicial coup, in which all three branches of government are now under the sway of an agenda designed to thwart every stab at progress for equal rights, gender equality, LGBTQ rights, health care, and voting rights, as well as to cede power to the president regarding any issue with the most tangential relationship to national security.

5. Jews would have no problem if they comprised 44% of the Supreme Court despite being only 2% of the US population. But they do have a problem when white people are overrepresented in any capacity. Are they blind to their own hypocrisy or is this just plain & simple chauvinism?

6. Only hours after NCJW's press release, Jewish Senators Ted Deutch and Charles Schumer also condemned Kavanaugh. Schumer went a step further, declaring "I will oppose Judge Kavanaugh's nomination with everything I have." Did this include fabricated rape accusations?

"The Senate has come together on a bipartisan basis to protect women's reproductive rights and to protect health care for millions of Americans before – including those with pre-existing conditions. We need to do it again. I will oppose Judge Kavanaugh's nomination with everything I have, and I hope a bipartisan majority will do the same. The stakes are simply too high for anything less."

7. So how broad was Jewish opposition to Kavanaugh? Very:

- Workman's Circle
- Jewish Women International
- ADL
- Jewish Democratic Council of America
- Hitoreri
- Bend the Arc
- (continued in image below)

Here's a quote from Bend the Arc CEO, Stosh Cotler:

Jewish Americans must fervently oppose the confirmation of Judge Kavanaugh. On issues of religious freedom, reproductive rights, voting rights, economic justice, and a host of other issues, Kavanaugh has shown fierce hostility to the priorities and values of an overwhelming majority of our community.

American Conference of Cantors
Association of Reform Jewish Educators
Central Conference of American Rabbis
Commission on Social Action of Reform Judaism
Early Childhood Educators of Reform Judaism
Men of Reform Judaism
National Association for Temple Administration
NFTY – The Reform Jewish Youth Movement
Program and Engagement Professionals of Reform Judaism
Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism
Union for Reform Judaism
Women of Reform Judaism

8. After two months of ridicule from Jewish media, Kavanaugh's first Senate confirmation hearing came on Sept 4. It was a circus of screeching protesters and Democrat obstruction. Listen to the voice of Jewish Senator Richard Blumenthal try to stop the hearing from proceeding 🗨️

9. Immediately following the hearing, a strange man emerged from the crowd and rushed toward Kavanaugh for a handshake. Clearly startled, Kavanaugh avoided the man who turned out to be the father of a Parkland High shooting victim. The media seized on this to smear Kavanaugh.

10. And yes, the man who rushed Kavanaugh for a handshake is also Jewish. It was a feeble attempt to emotionally manipulate Kavanaugh into softening his position on Americans' enshrined Constitutional right to bear arms. Why else would he be there - to support Kavanaugh? No.

News / Politics

Parkland dad: Brett Kavanaugh's reason for not shaking my hand is 'less than genuine'

11. Incidentally, Jewish emotional manipulation is common in American politics like when President Truman's Jewish business partner showed up crying at the White House after Truman resolved to not let Jews persuade him into recognizing Israel as a state in 1947. But I digress.

As Mr. Truman says in the Memoirs, "... the matter had been placed in the United Nations and, true to my conviction that the United Nations had to be made to work, I had confidence that a solution would be found there." But pressure on the White House from American Zionists was, as Mr. Truman told me, so great that:

TRUMAN. Well, there'd never been anything like it before, and there wasn't after. Not even when I fired MacArthur, there wasn't. And I said, I issued orders that I wasn't going to see anyone who was an extremist for the Zionist cause, and I didn't care who it was. There were ... I had to keep in mind that much as I favored a homeland for the Jews, there were simply other matters awaiting ... that I had to worry about.

And then late on the morning of March 13 Mr. Truman got a telephone call from the Statler, where his old friend and business partner Eddie Jacobson was staying. Eddie wanted to come to the White House to see the President.

TRUMAN. I said to him, "Eddie, I'm always glad to see old friends, but there's one thing you've got to promise me. I don't want you to say a word about what's going on over there in the Middle East. Do you promise?" And he did.

A little later Eddie was ushered into the Oval Room, and this is the way Harry Truman described what followed:

TRUMAN. Great tears were running down his cheeks, and I took one look at him, and I said, "Eddie, you son of a bitch, you promised me you wouldn't say a word about what's going on over there." And he said, "Mr. President, I haven't said a word, but every time I think of the homeless Jews, homeless for thousands of years, and I think about Dr. Weizmann,⁵ I start crying. I can't help it. He's an old man, and he's spent his whole life working for a homeland for the Jews, and now he's sick, and he's in New York and wants to see you. And every time I think about it I can't help crying."

I said, "Eddie, that's enough. That's the last word."

And so we talked about this and that, but every once in a while a big tear would roll down his cheek. At one point he said something about how I felt about old Andy Jackson, and he was crying again. He said he knew he wasn't supposed to, but that's how he felt about Weizmann.

I said, "Eddie, you son of a bitch, I ought to have you thrown right out of here for breaking your promise; you knew damn good and well I couldn't stand seeing you cry."

And he kind of smiled at me, still crying, though, and he said, "Thank you, Mr. President," and he left.

After he was gone, I picked up the phone and called the State Department, and I told them I was going to see Weizmann.

5. Chaim Weizmann, head of the World Zionists and the first President of Israel.

12. In the days following Kavanaugh's hearing, Jewish media leveraged protest footage to increase nationwide panic and brainwash America into believing that Kavanaugh was staking claim to women's ovaries. But who was organizing these histrionic protests?

SIGN IN

Bloch Family History

Bloch Name Meaning

Jewish (Ashkenazic): regional name for someone in Eastern Europe originating from Italy, from Polish wloch, meaning 'Italian' (originally 'foreigner'). See Vlach. German and Swedish: variant of Block. Danish: from blok 'block (of wood)', hence a nickname for a large lumpish person, or from German Block.

Source: Dictionary of American Family Names ©2013, Oxford University Press

HUFFPOST PERSONAL

My Daughter And I Dressed As Handmaids And Got Arrested To Protest Brett Kavanaugh

By Nadine Bloch and Margot Bloch Guest Writers

09/19/2018 08:30 AM ET

Margot Bloch (left) and Nadine Bloch (right), dressed as Handmaids.
(Courtesy of Nadine Bloch)

13. Here are the organizers of the protests, as listed on the Center for American Progress website. Let's take a look at which of these organizations are funded and/or headed by Jews.

MoveOn
NARAL Pro-Choice America
People For the American Way
National Women's Law Center
The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights
Alliance for Justice
Planned Parenthood Action Fund
National Council of Jewish Women
Center for American Progress Action Fund
Generation Progress
Demand Justice
URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender Equity
National Partnership for Women and Families
Advocates for Youth/Know Your IX
Women's March
CPD Action
Protect Our Care
Human Rights Campaign
American Federation of Teachers
League of Conservation Voters
Coalition of Labor Union Women
Sierra Club
Service Employees International Union

14. Of the 23 organizations listed, 20 are funded completely or in part by Giorgi Schwartz (aka George Soros).

MoveOn
Naral Pro-Choice America
People for the American Way
National Women's Law Center
The Leadership Conference on Civil &
Human Rights
Alliance for Justice
Planned Parenthood Action Fund
National Council of Jewish Women
Center for American Progress
Generation Progress
Demand Justice
URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender
Equity
Advocates for Youth/Know Your IX
Women's March
CPD Action
Human Rights Campaign
American Federation of Teachers
League of Conservative Voters
Sierra Club

15. Of the 23 organizations listed, 14 have a Jewish founder and/or President.

MoveOn
Naral Pro-Choice America
People for the American Way
National Women's Law Center
The Leadership Conference on Civil &
Human Rights
Alliance for Justice
National Council of Jewish Women
URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender
Equity
Advocates for Youth/Know Your IX
CPD Action
Protect Our Care
American Federation of Teachers
League of Conservative Voters

16. So let's take a look at that list again using this legend:

 - founded/headed by a Jew (61%)

 - funded by Giorgi Schwartz (87%)

- ★ 🏆 MoveOn
- ★ 🏆 NARAL Pro-Choice America
- ★ 🏆 People For the American Way
- ★ 🏆 National Women's Law Center
- ★ 🏆 The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights
- ★ 🏆 Alliance for Justice
- 🏆 Planned Parenthood Action Fund
- ★ 🏆 National Council of Jewish Women
- 🏆 Center for American Progress Action Fund
- 🏆 Generation Progress
- 🏆 Demand Justice
- ★ 🏆 URGE: Unite for Reproductive & Gender Equity
- 🏆 National Partnership for Women and Families
- ★ 🏆 Advocates for Youth/Know Your IX
- 🏆 Women's March
- ★ 🏆 CPD Action
- ★ 🏆 Protect Our Care
- 🏆 Human Rights Campaign
- ★ 🏆 American Federation of Teachers
- ★ 🏆 League of Conservation Voters
- 🏆 Coalition of Labor Union Women
- 🏆 Sierra Club
- 🏆 Service Employees International Union

17. Unsurprisingly, only 3 Jewish organizations approved of Kavanaugh:

- Coalition for Jewish Values
- Republican Jewish Coalition
- Jewish Coalition for Religious Liberty

It seems Kavanaugh's efforts to help Jews build a Synagogue (pro bono) didn't earn him many Jewish allies:

Supreme Court nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh arriving prior to meeting with Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell on Capitol Hill in Washington, July 10, 2018. Credit: Joshua Roberts/ REUTERS

How Supreme Court Nominee Brett Kavanaugh Helped Build a Synagogue in D.C.

Among his numerous cases, including those concerning President Bill Clinton and the 2000 Florida election recount, is a lesser-known one about a shul in a Washington suburb

18. Conversely, only two Christian organizations disapproved of Kavanaugh:

- National Council of Churches
- Mormon Women for Ethical Government

However, these disapprovals came AFTER Kavanaugh was baselessly accused of sexual misconduct (more on this next).

19. With Kavanaugh's appointment looking likely to happen before midterm elections, Jews started scrambling to delay the appointment. A week before Kavanaugh's scheduled appointment, Jew Senator Feinstein revealed she had a letter describing sexual misconduct by Kavanaugh.

ANALYSIS: HOW JEWISH SENATOR FEINSTEIN MIGHT BRING DOWN KAVANAUGH

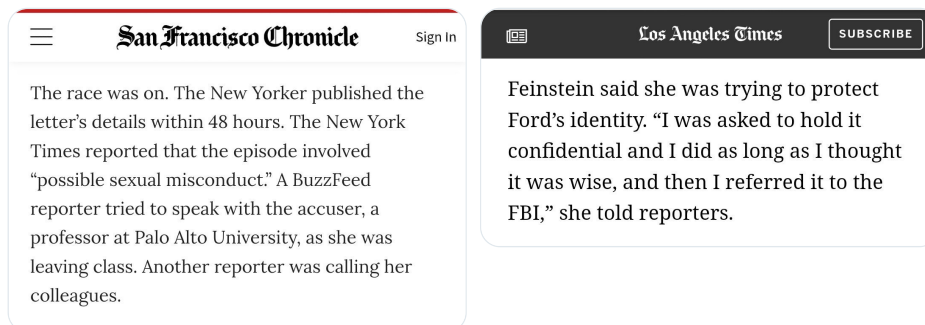

By JTA

20. Feinstein received this letter on July 30, but chose to withhold it through thirty hours of confirmation hearings. She finally sent the info to the FBI on Sept. 12 - six weeks after receiving it and a week prior to Kavanaugh's appointment hearing.

21. So why did Feinstein withhold the letter for so long? She said she "was trying to protect the accuser's identity." But it was obviously a delay tactic. Within one day of revealing the existence of the letter, the identity of the letter's author was "leaked" to the Jew media.

22. In her letter, the accuser, Christine Blasey Ford, claimed Kavanaugh dry humped her 36 years ago during a high school party but forgot about it until undergoing "memory gap hypnotherapy." Ford happens to be an expert in this field too. Convenient. Here is Ford, then and now.

23. Despite Ford having no corroborating evidence (she couldn't remember where she was assaulted, when it happened, how she got there, how she got home, and none of the "witnesses" she put forward corroborated her story), a special hearing was arranged to investigate her claim.

WASHINGTON
Examiner

Digital Magazine Log In | Subscribe

Sunday, October 14, 2018

OPINION

4 new witnesses for Christine Blasey Ford don't really corroborate her claim against Kavanaugh

by Becket Adams
| September 26, 2018 11:43 AM

24. In the meantime, two more women would come forward to accuse Kavanaugh - one of which is Jewish. What are the odds you say? Glad you asked: $2\% + 2\% = 4\%$. Yes, there was only a 4% chance that one of the women would be Jewish, yet here we are. And she's been busy 🗨

Jewish Kavanaugh accuser has history of legal disputes

Her lawyer insists Julie Swetnick's previous lawsuits — including accusations of falsifying college and work history — do not impair her credibility

By MICHAEL KUNZELMAN, MICHAEL BIESECKER and MARTHA ...

30 Sep 2018, 4:30 pm | 8

Julie Swetnick in a photo provided by her lawyer, Michael Avenatti, on Twitter. (Michael Avenatti/Twitter via JTA)

25. Ford would show up to the hearing flanked by only Jewish lawyers while Kavanaugh was accompanied by his family. Ford testified that her Jew lawyers were recommended by Jew Senator Feinstein. They are Debra Katz (left) and Michael Bromwich (right) - both working pro bono.

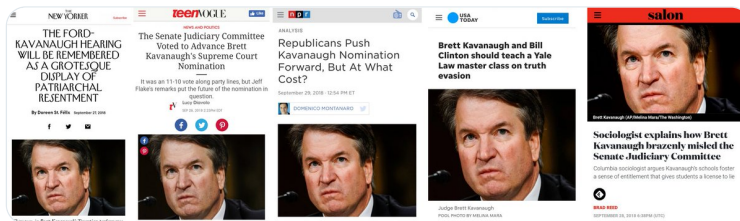

26. Incidentally, Debra Katz is a self-proclaimed "Resistance" member and DACA defender. She is also a co-chairman of the Project on Government Oversight, which happens to be funded by none other than international name-changing Jew, Giorgi Schwartz.

27. After the hearing, the Jewish media selectively curated images and video clips to strengthen their indictment of Kavanaugh. They portrayed Ford as the victim and Kavanaugh as a detestable drunkard despite 26 years of meritorious public service to America.

28. The relentless characterization of Kavanaugh as an alcoholic womanizer by Jewish media and screeching protesters was effective - Republicans agreed to delay the appointment to permit an FBI investigation despite Kavanaugh having been previously investigated 6 times.

29. During this period, several other prominent Jews like Alan Dershowitz opined that Kavanaugh's appointment should be delayed. Even the American Bar Association (ABA) voiced opposition. And who is the CEO of the ABA? Jewish attorney Jack Rives.

Every. Single. Time.

^ Background

Rives grew up in Rockmart, Georgia, where his family were the only Jews in a town of 4,000. "We would go to [synagogue for] the High Holy Days... and there was curiosity among my classmates, curiosity about why I was getting out of school to go to Yom Kippur services or Rosh Hashanah." He either attended or taught Sunday school every week from the time he was 5 years old until high school.^[3]

30. After a week of investigation, the FBI found no evidence to support Ford's claim. The next day, Oct. 6, the Senate voted to confirm Kavanaugh by a narrow margin of 50-48. Every Jewish Senator voted no - Cardin, Feinstein, Blumenthal, Schatz, Wyden, Sanders, Bennet, & Schumer.

Richard Blumenthal

Dianne Feinstein

Ben Cardin

Ron Wyden

Bernie Sanders

Michael Bennet

Shmuley

31. The alarming fact about the narrow margin victory is that Jews were almost successful by using only moral indictments with absolutely no proof. They were able to convict Kavanaugh in the court of public opinion and essentially abrogate the presumption of innocence.

32. Interesting that Senator Richard Blumenthal said Kavanaugh would be "a stain on the Supreme Court" considering the fact that he lied about serving in Vietnam when he was campaigning for the Senate. He got five deferments but somehow "misspoke." He's a stain on the Senate.

Dear Sen. Richard Blumenthal,

You recently called upon your Senate colleagues to subject Judge Neil Gorsuch's record to "extreme vetting," questioning both his qualification and biography. The Senate certainly has the right and obligation to closely review any nominee for the United States Supreme Court. Conversely, it is our right as Americans and veterans to scrutinize your hypocrisy in doing so.

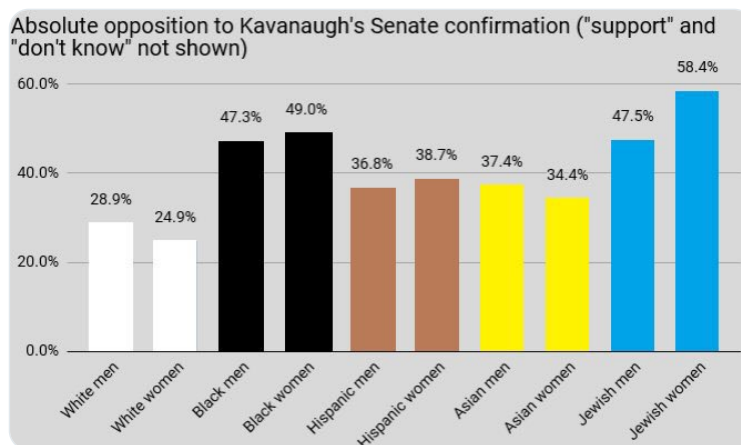

We are veterans of the Vietnam War. We fought alongside our brothers in arms, many of whom died or were gravely injured there. We saw the treatment meted out on us and our fellow military personnel upon our return, yet we never questioned our commitment to our nation's freedom. But perhaps more relevant to this discussion is that we know you were not there with us.

The fact you repeatedly and consistently claimed to have served in Vietnam is a gross case of stolen valor in our opinion. You obtained at least five military deferments between 1965 and 1970, at least two of which were seemingly political favors to you so that you could avoid joining us in a war zone. Here are just a few examples where it appears that you have chosen to buttress your political resume by shamefully inflating your record of military service:

33. By the way, Brian Schatz is Hawaii's Senator. He traded in his yarmulke for a flower lei - I'm sure the native islanders whose families have been there for generations probably think he's totally authentic. But I digress.

34. How effective was Ford's baseless accusation in driving anti-Kavanaugh sentiment? Incredibly effective because the media gave it credence. Day by day, more of America became convinced that Kavanaugh was a drunk womanizer with no evidence. Jews were leading the way of course.

35. So why did Jews oppose Kavanaugh so fervently? Fear over his decisions surrounding key Jewish interests:

- abortion
- religious freedom
- gun control

- executive power
- immigration
- affirmative action

THE NEW YORK JEWISH WEEK

Jewish Interests Seen In Peril As Kavanaugh Ascends To Court

'Core principles' at play in what could be ideologically altered Supreme Court; conservatives stress his balanced record.

By STEWART AIN

October 9, 2018, 10:07 pm | 6

Brett Kavanaugh, with some of his fellow Supreme Court justices on hand, at a ceremonial swearing-in Monday at the White House. Getty Images

36. Abortion: despite Kavanaugh saying several times previously that he would uphold Roe vs Wade, Jews were not convinced. Jews claim abortion is their religious right regardless of trimester, and thus inextricably connected to the First Amendment. Here is a rabbi to explain:

The Washington Post

Democracy Dies in Darkness

Here's what Kavanaugh told the Senate in 2006, when he was being confirmed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit: "If confirmed to the D.C. Circuit, I would follow Roe v. Wade faithfully and fully. That would be binding precedent of the court. It's been decided by the Supreme Court." He added: "It's been reaffirmed many times."

37. Religious freedom: Jews want to legally compel companies to provide services that violate their religious beliefs. For example, forcing a Christian company to provide insurance for abortion. This would essentially force plan-holders to subsidize those with low-impulse control

The Washington Post

Democracy Dies in Darkness

Courts Law

In major Supreme Court case, Justice Dept. sides with baker who refused to make wedding cake for gay couple

By Robert Barnes

September 7, 2017 at 5:21 PM

The Supreme Court ruled 7-2 in favor of Masterpiece Cakeshop baker Jack Phillips, who refused to bake a cake for a same-sex couple. (Monica Akhtar, Victoria Walker/The Washington Post)

38. Gun control: the Talmud proclaims Gentiles to be equivalent to suspected killers & Jews are prohibited from selling guns to them. Just as Judeo-Bolsheviks banned guns in Russia in 1918, Jew legislators in the US have worked diligently to abridge Americans' right to bear arms.

Avodah Zarah 15b

The William Davidson Talmud

AN

Apropos the baraita that discusses the prohibition against selling weapons, the Gemara relates that Rav Dimi bar Abba says: Just as it is prohibited to sell to a gentile, it is prohibited to sell to an armed bandit who is a Jew. The Gemara clarifies: What are the circumstances of this prohibition? If the thief is suspected of killing, isn't it obvious that it is prohibited? After all, he is the same as a gentile. Providing a Jew who might kill with weapons is no different from giving a weapon to a gentile, as in both cases one violates the prohibition: Do not place a stumbling block before the blind.

U.S. Federal Gun Control Legislation, 1968 – present 1968: The Gun Control Act of 1968 comes from Congressman Emanuel Celler's house bill H.R. 17735. It expands legislation already attempted by the non-Jewish Senator Thomas Dodd: America's biggest and most far-reaching gun law came from a Jew. 1988: Senator Howard Metzenbaum sponsors Senate bill S. 1523. It proposes legislation turning every violation of the Gun Control Act of 1968 into a RICO predicate offense, allowing a gun owner to be charged with federal racketeering offenses. 1988: Senator Howard Metzenbaum co-sponsors a bill – S.2180 – “to ban, or limit/restrict, so-called “plastic guns.” 1990: Senator Herbert Kohl introduces bill S.2070, the Gun-Free School Zones Act of 1990, which bans gun possession in a school zone. The law will later be struck down in court as unconstitutional. 1993: Senator Howard Metzenbaum sponsors Senate bill S.633. It bans specific semiautomatic rifles, but also gives the Secretary of the Treasury the power to add any semiautomatic firearm to the list at a later date. February, 1994: The Brady Law, which requires waiting periods to buy handguns, becomes effective. Senator Howard Metzenbaum wrote the Brady Bill. Senator Metzenbaum sponsored the bill in the Senate. The sponsor of the bill in the House was Congressman Charles Schumer. 1994: Senator Howard Metzenbaum introduces S. 1878, the Gun Violence Prevention Act of 1994, aka “Brady II.” Congressman Charles Schumer sponsored “Brady II” sister legislation [H.R. 1321] in the U.S. House of Representatives. September, 1994: The Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 goes into effect, including a provision that bans the manufacture and possession of semiautomatic rifles described as “assault weapons.” [Note: true assault weapons are fully automatic, not semiautomatic.] That gun-ban provision was authored in the Senate by Senator Diane Feinstein not authored in the House by Congressman Charles Schumer.	1995: Senators Kohl, Specter, Feinstein, Lautenberg and others introduce the Gun-Free School Zones Act of 1995, an amended version of the 1990 school-zone law which was struck down in court as being unconstitutional. September, 1996: The Lautenberg Domestic Confiscation provision becomes law. It is part of a larger omnibus appropriations bill. It was sponsored by Senator Frank Lautenberg. It bans people convicted of misdemeanor domestic violence from ever owning a gun. 1997: Senate bill S. 54, the Federal Gang Violence Act of 1997, proposes much harsher sentences for people violating minor gun laws, including mandatory prison sentences and forfeiture of property. It was introduced by Senator Diane Feinstein and Senator Hatch, among others. It returns the idea of turning every violation of the Gun Control Act of 1968 into a RICO predicate offense. January, 1999: Senator Barbara Boxer introduces bill S.193, the American Handgun Standards Act of 1999. January, 1999: Senator Herbert Kohl introduces bill S.148, the CHS Safety Lock Act of 1999. It would require a child safety lock in connection with transfer of a handgun. February, 1999: Senator Frank Lautenberg introduces bill S.407, the Stop Gun Trafficking Act of 1999. February, 1999: Senator Frank Lautenberg introduces S.443, the Gun Show Accountability Act of 1999. March, 1999: Senator Frank Lautenberg introduces bill S.585, the Gun Industry Accountability Act of 1999. March, 1999: Senator Diane Feinstein introduces bill S.594, the Large Capacity Ammunition Magazine Import Ban Act of 1999. May, 2001: Senators Feinstein, Boxer, Lautenberg, and Schumer sponsor Senate bill S.2515, the Firearm Licensing and Record of Sale Act of 2001. It is a plan for a national firearms licensing system. January, 2001: Senators Feinstein, Schumer, and Boxer sponsor Senate bill S.25, the Firearm Licensing and Record of Sale Act of 2001. It is a nation-wide gun registration plan. Apparently there were two versions of that	Firearm Licensing and Record of Sale Act bill. May, 2003: Senators Feinstein, Schumer, Boxer, and others introduce legislation that would reauthorize the 1994 federal assault weapons ban, and, close a loophole in the law that allows large-capacity ammunition magazines to be imported into the U.S. The ban expired in September, 2004. October, 2003: Senators Feinstein, Lautenberg, Levin, and Schumer co-sponsor bill S. 1774, designed to stop the sunset [ending] of the Undetectable Firearms Act of 1988. March, 2005: Senator Frank Lautenberg introduces bill S.645, “to reinstate the Public Safety and Recreational Firearms Use Protection Act” in other words, to reinstate the 1994 assault rifle ban [also known as the “Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994”] which expired in late 2004. March, 2005: Senator Diane Feinstein introduces bill S.620, “to reinstate the Public Safety and Recreational Firearms Use Protection Act” in other words, to reinstate the 1994 assault rifle ban [also known as the “Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994”] which expired in late 2004. July, 2005: Senator Diane Feinstein introduces bill S.A. 1621 – Fifty-Caliber Sniper Weapons. This amendment would convert all 50 BMG firearms to NFA weapons. July, 2005: Senator Diane Feinstein introduces bill S.A.1622 – Fifty-Caliber Exclusion to S.297. This amendment would modify S.297 to allow sale when the firearm involved was a .50 caliber weapon. July, 2005: Senator Barbara Boxer introduces bill S.A.1633 – BATFE Safety Standards. This amendment allows law suits to continue/be brought if the product did not meet the safety standards as defined by the BATFE. July, 2005: Senator Barbara Boxer introduces bill S.A.1634 – “Sporting Use” on Domestic Handguns. Applying “sporting use” clause requirements to domestic handguns could, almost completely, dry up the handgun availability in the United States.
--	--	--

39. Executive power: Kavanaugh twice remarked in 1998 & 2009 that the US President should be immune to lawsuits while in office & has the power to issue self-pardons. This would of course affect the Jewish-led Mueller-Russia probe and the emoluments case brought by...two Jews 🙄

41. Affirmative action (AA): four decades ago, the big pro-Jew orgs, the ADL, the American Jewish Congress, and the American Jewish Committee, were against AA.

Why? Because set-asides for higher education only included blacks, Asians, Amerindians, and Hispanics - not Jews.

42. Thus, Jews had to compete with whites for slots not set aside for minorities - not good in white-dominated institutions. But Jews also didn't want quotas for Jews either b/c their proportion of the US population is only 2% and once their quota is filled, excess goes to whites

THE HARVARD LAW RECORD

Affirmative action policies often involve the unchallenged, but questionable assumption that every institution should generally have a white majority, or at least a white plurality. These policies assume that once an institution has accepted a "critical mass" of each minority group (since quotas are taboo), it has satisfied its "diversity" goal. And once this "diversity" goal has been achieved, white applicants usually inherit the remaining majority of seats.

43. In the early 1990s, Jews flipped and started supporting AA for non-Jewish minorities. Why? Because once they embedded themselves in institutions like higher education, they no longer had to compete with whites for the non-AA slots. I'll let Alan Dershowitz explain it:

Tablet

Washington Post, he admitted that "his own opposition to race-conscious admissions has dissipated because his experience teaching law in racially diverse classrooms has convinced him that "affirmative action works." Whether or not this is true, Dershowitz goes on to explain that Jews in general are not as opposed to affirmative action as they once were because in 1977:

we feared that our hard-earned right to be admitted on the merits would be taken away. The WASP quotient would be held constant, and the Jews and African-Americans would be left to fight over the crumbs. ... What happened is that Jews have become the WASPs. They are among the dominant groups on campus, in terms of numbers.

Goldstein interprets this quote in his book to mean that Dershowitz is unsettled by the reality that Jews are now "the WASPs." However, Dershowitz's emphasis is on the fact that many American Jews have gradually decided that admissions policies designed to boost minority enrollment do not threaten their own hard-won foothold in elite colleges and graduate schools. Stern, the general counsel at AJCongress, echoed that sentiment when he stated that "the Jewish community is less concerned about affirmative action than it was 25 years ago." These statements show that factors

Tablet

Dershowitz let out an important corollary to his observation that Jews have become America's new WASP elites, namely that Asians have become the new Jews. Given their drive to succeed and stellar performance in academics they have been dubbed the new Jews since at least the mid-1980s. Dershowitz observes in his book The Vanishing American Jew that as Jews have become more accepted and less discriminated against "they have also become less driven, less creative, less obsessed with proving themselves." He adds:

It is no longer true as it once may have been that Jews, as a people, have more drive, more fortitude than others. Even in my 30-plus years of teaching at Harvard, I have seen a significant change: Jewish students are simply not as outstanding as they once seemed to be.

Dershowitz's remark that Jews have earned the right to become the dominant group on campus based on their merits is seemingly at odds with his earlier observation that Jews no longer perform at the high levels they once did. The contradiction expressed in Dershowitz's statements is at the heart of a recent statistical analysis of elite college admissions by Jewish Harvard alum and former publisher of the American Conservative, Ron Unz.

44. So AA had absolutely no affect on Jews while every slot allocated for minorities was necessarily a slot taken away from whites. Hence, why Jews make up 25% of Ivy League admissions. So Jewish advocacy for AA ipso facto is advocacy for the marginalization of whites.

45. The opaque admissions process of higher ed institutions like Harvard obviously doesn't protect against Jewish in-group favoritism because there is no explanation for the preponderance of sub-par Jews at elite universities (2% of population, 25% undergrad/62% grad at Harvard).

Make a contribution

The Guardian

News

Opinion

Sport

Culture

Lifestyle

Opinion

How did 'less than stellar' high school student Jared Kushner get into Harvard?

Daniel Golden

Donald Trump's son-in-law was accepted into the Ivy League university in the wake of a $2.5m pledge made by his parents

Fri 18 Nov 2016 13:00 EST

f

t

e

Los Angeles Times

SUBSCRIBE

For each applicant, the university conducts a “whole person review” that includes considerations of racial and nonracial factors such as socioeconomic background in addition to grades, test scores, recommendations, extracurricular activities and “personal qualities” such as being kind, respected and likable — an approach Harvard said is well within the law.

46. One explanation could be Jewish overrepresentation in admission staff. Another might be donations from Jews. Here's Jewish author Daniel Golden's opinion: "the rich buy their way into universities with donations." CNN also confirms this in its reporting on the Harvard trial.

I would like to express my gratitude to Jared Kushner for reviving interest in my 2006 book, The Price of Admission. I have never met or spoken with him, and it's rare in this life to find such a selfless benefactor. Of course, I doubt he became Donald Trump's son-in-law and consigliere merely to boost my lagging sales, but still, I'm thankful.

Who is Jared Kushner? Trump's son-in-law at center of transition team drama

Read more

My book exposed a grubby secret of American higher education: that the rich buy their underachieving children's way into elite universities with massive, tax-deductible donations. It reported that

New Jersey real estate developer Charles Kushner had pledged $2.5m to Harvard University not long before his son Jared was admitted to the prestigious Ivy League school, which at the time accepted about one of every nine applicants. (Nowadays, it only takes one out of 20.)

GETTING OUR GROOVE BACK

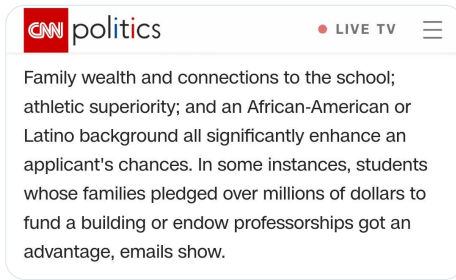

How to Energize American Jewry

Scott A. Shay

Donations to Universities

Jews are among the most generous donors to universities. Having recently completed a college tour with my son, I was astounded by the number of new buildings and new schools being named after Jewish donors. At the University of Chicago, Cornell and Northwestern, to name but a few, the medical schools are named after Jewish donors. At NYU and the University of Michigan the business school are named after Jewish donors. Countless Jews have endowed university chairs. At the University of Pennsylvania, Jews have created half a dozen endowed professorships in the arts and humanities alone. Jews have also endowed research institutes and departments in universities across the country. Almost all of the major Ivy League universities have received substantial donations from Jews. A review of gifts to universities by Jewish donors in 2000 alone quickly exceeds $200 million. Imagine what even a quarter of that money could do for American Jewry: it is enough to transform all of our Hebrew schools and fund all major youth groups, enough to make one year of Jewish camping affordable for all American Jews, enough to send 100,000 young Diaspora Jews to Israel on a birthright trip, enough to dramatically improve the day school movement and enable thousands of children, who otherwise could not afford to, to attend day schools. Instead, Jews are currently making breathtaking contributions to universities where their emphasis is on large and medium-sized perpetual endowments.

Though Jewish giving to universities is a testament to Jewish integration in American society, Jews should consider very carefully whether making mega-gifts to endowment funds is the best place for their contributions. In my view, those Jews who wish to donate to universities should concentrate on operating funds. The reasons are twofold. First, endowment funds are by definition perpetual assets of universities, yet universities are changing institutions. Do you want your money to continue to fund institutions when these no longer represent your values? We Jews should ask ourselves this question in light of the history

47. Kavanaugh could decide the fate of AA as Asian groups are currently suing Harvard over admission discrimination. But we should note:

US population

Asians - 6%

Jews - 2%

Whites - 62%

Harvard Admissions

Asians - 22%

Jews - 25%

Whites - 20%

Who really should be suing?

MUST READS

NATION

Does Harvard discriminate against Asians? In a case that could upend college admissions, the Ivy League goes on trial

By JAWEED KALEEM

OCT 12, 2018 | 12:20 PM

Thang Diep, 21, left, a senior in neurobiology from Reseda, and Sally Chen, 21, a senior in history and literature from San Francisco, will both be testifying in support of Harvard University. (Marcus Yam / Los Angeles Times)

48. In case you needed any more proof of how farcical the Jewish assault was on Kavanaugh, attorney Debra Katz won't be pursuing any charges against him and the Jewish-led American Bar Association has closed its review of Kavanaugh that was opened only days before the vote.

abc WATCH LOG IN

CHRISTINE BLASEY FORD

Christine Blasey Ford has no plans to further pursue allegations against Brett Kavanaugh: Attorney

SHARE TWEET G+ SHARE EMAIL

Christine Blasey Ford's attorneys said she has no further plans to pursue sexual misconduct allegations against Brett Kavanaugh

CNN politics Live TV

American Bar Association drops review of Kavanaugh

By Ariane de Vogue, CNN Supreme Court Reporter

Updated 6:44 PM EDT, Mon October 15, 2018

f t

49. So what will become of the Supreme Court now that Kavanaugh was successfully appointed? Jews will make every effort to increase the court's number of Justices thereby diluting the weight of each Justice's vote.

FOX NEWS Login Watch TV

POLITICS · Published 4 days ago · Last Update 3 days ago

Liberal profs launch campaign to pack Supreme Court after Kavanaugh confirmation

By Gregg Re | Fox News

f t r s

Harvard professors Mark Tushnet and Laurence Tribe are lending their support to the so-called "1.20.21 Project," which was launched by political science professor Aaron Belkin on Wednesday to counter "Republican obstruction, theft and procedural abuse" of the federal judiciary.

Personal life

Tushnet is a nonobservant Jew. His wife, Elizabeth Alexander, is a Unitarian,^[17] and formerly directed the National Prison Project of the American Civil Liberties Union. She now works in private practice. Their daughter Rebecca Tushnet is a professor of law at Harvard Law School.^{[18][19]} Their other daughter Eve is a celibate lesbian Roman Catholic author and blogger.^{[20][21]}

Early life and education

Tribe was born in Shanghai, China, the son of Paulina (née Diatlovitsky) and George Israel Tribe.^[9] His family was Jewish. His father was from Poland and his mother was born in Harbin, to immigrants from Eastern Europe.^{[10][11][12]} He was raised in the French Concession of Shanghai.^[10] Tribe attended Abraham Lincoln High School, San Francisco, California. He holds an A.B. in mathematics, summa cum laude from Harvard College (1962), and a J.D., magna cum laude from Harvard Law School (1966), where he was a member of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau. Tribe was a member of the Harvard team that won the intercollegiate National Debate Tournament in 1961 and coached the team to the same title in 1969.^[13]

50. And now we arrive back at 33 CE, where the Galilean Jesus stands trial before Caiaphas and the rest of the Jewish Pharisees. In a situation eerily similar to Kavanaugh's, the Pharisees bring forth false witnesses to indict Jesus of blasphemy and ultimately crucify him. ➡ End.

Matt

26

Bible

⁵⁹The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking false testimony against Jesus in order to put Him to death. ⁶⁰But they could not find it, though many false witnesses came forward.

Finally two came forward ⁶¹and said, "This man declared, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

⁶²So the high priest stood up and asked Him, "Have you no answer? What are these men testifying against you?"

⁶³But Jesus remained silent.

...